To: Bussmann series CCP Class CF (CUBEFuse™) customers
Subject: End-of-life notice

Dear valued customer:

With the launch of the Bussmann™ series next generation Class CF fuse Compact Circuit Protector (cat. no. CCP2-CF) UL® 98 disconnect switches, the previous iteration of these products are immediately discontinued.

The next generation CCP2-CF is a direct, drop in replacement with the same form, fit and function with additional catalog numbers offering front and side rotary operation.

The legacy products (CCP-CF) will continue to be available for purchase while inventory lasts. All existing stock is saleable product and should not be returned. The affected catalog numbers, UPCs and recommended direct replacements are listed below.
